

The Mental Health Act 2007 - Reference Wall Chart

ARE YOU PREPARED FOR THE INTRODUCTION OF THE MENTAL HEALTH ACT 2007?

This easy to read wall chart is designed to provide staff with a quick and comprehensive reference point to the changes being introduced by the Mental Health Act 2007.

It is an essential tool in the build up to the implementation of the Act:

- Highlighting essential information on the key changes and additions to the original Mental Health Act 1983.
- Helping staff familiarise themselves with the changes before they come into force (most changes come into effect on 3rd November 2008)
- Assisting services users to gain a clearer picture of the changes in relation to their care, treatment and rights.

The wall chart includes information on the following changes made by the new legislation

- √ Detention criteria
- √ The 'treatability test'
- √ Approved Clinicians and Responsible Clinicians
- √ Approved Mental Health Professionals
- √ Community Treatment Orders
- √ Electro-convulsive therapy
- √ Independent Mental Health Advocacy
- √ Admission and treatment of those under 18
- √ Mental Health Review Tribunal referrals
- √ Nearest relative displacements
- √ Transfer of Section 135 and 136
